HEALTH AND WELFARE/ENVIRONMENT

NEWS SEGMENT: In tonight's "Stay Fit Las Vegas" you might want to think twice about super-sizing. You could be upping your risk of cancer. Research from the University of Texas shows diets high in saturated fat may increase your risk of prostate cancer. The study looked at men who had cancerous prostates removed. Men eating high amounts of saturated fat had almost double the chance of the cancer progressing than the men who laid off the saturated fat. Produced by Nina Radetich, Broadcast Date: 07/02/08- 11PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Reno businesses seem to be doing a lot better with the "Smoking Ban" than businesses here in Southern Nevada. The Washoe County District Health Department says nearly 98% of Reno area businesses are complying with the ban, while more than 4,000 complaints have been made to the Southern NV Health District about smoking inside businesses in the last 18-months. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 07/06/08- 11PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: New developments concerning a vaccine to prevent cervical cancer. Health officials say Gardasil has been the subject of 7,000 "Adverse-Event" reports. From the time the FDA approved its use 2-years ago to April, girls and women have blamed the vaccine for causing ailments from nausea to paralysis even death. The CDC says it will continue to study the reports. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 07/07/08- 5PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: An update now on the nationwide salmonella outbreak. The first local case of salmonella poisoning has been confirmed. The FDA is still trying to find the source of bacteria. It was thought to be tomatoes, but investigation now includes jalapeno and Serrano peppers and cilantro... all used to make salsa. 12 cases have been confirmed across Nevada, but local health officials say that is not surprising. Produced by Jenn Egurrola, Broadcast Date: 07/11/08- 8AM GMA CUT-IN. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: It seems illegal dumping is getting out of control, as people continue to trash neighborhoods. The health district says the number of complaints is skyrocketing. Everything from mattresses, to recliners and refrigerators are being tossed into empty lots across the valley. SNHD says they have gotten 450 more complaints than they did last year and homeowners simply want the junk out of their neighborhoods. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast Date: 07/22/08- 430AM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Your taste buds could play a role in your health. Some researchers have developed paper thin testing squares they say will enhance the way your taste buds are tested. The strips have different flavors that are up to a hundred times more sensitive than previous taste bud testers. Researchers say the strips will help them figure out how we can eat healthier and enjoy it. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 08/06/08- 11PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Clark County has our first "probable" case of West Nile Virus in a human. The Southern Nevada Health District says a 50-year old man may have a more serious form of the illness. The Health District reported West Nile positive mosquitoes in the 89122 zip code a while back. Produced by Crystal Bruce, Broadcast Date: 08/11/08- 11AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Can you be fit if you are fat? A new study says yes. Half of overweight adults and a third of obese men and women have normal blood pressure, cholesterol and other signs of heart health. Being lean doesn't necessarily guarantee heart health; about a quarter of so-called normal weight Americans had risk factors for heart disease and diabetes. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 08/12/08- 430AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Some shocking news this morning concerning health care here in Southern Nevada. One of our local hospitals just made the list it most likely doesn't want to be on. There is a new government website that ranks the worst and best hospitals in the nation based on certain types of death rates. Valley Hospital Medical Center is on the list for the worst death rates compared to the national average (16.6%)... compared to the best in Pennsylvania, 11.6%. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 08/20/08- 5AM Newscast. (:75 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Some new figures from the census bureau shows a high number of Nevadans lack of health insurance. A new study shows 17% or 441,000 Nevadans are uninsured. Nationally, the number is about 15%. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 08/27/08- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Starbucks is trying to tempt your taste buds to attract more customers. The Seattle Company has added five new permanent "healthy" breakfast options to its menu. They include oatmeal, a fruit and nut bar, a protein plate, an apple bran muffin, and a tart topped with berries and oats. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 09/05/08- 5AM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Abnormal sleep patterns may bring earlier death for older men. A new study monitored sleep habits of three thousand men over 60-years of age. Those with sleep patterns earlier or later in the day had increased risk of death. Researchers say earlier or later sleep patterns may disrupt metabolism or indicate the onset of Alzheimer's disease. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/08/08- 11PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Federal Government is launching a new Spanish language campaign to promote a healthy lifestyle for Hispanics. National Institutes of Health Statistics show more than 63% of Mexican-American children between 6-11 years old are overweight or obese compared to 38% Non-Hispanic children of the same age. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 09/17/08- 6AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Even though summer is not over yet, it's never too early to start thinking about a flu-shot, and starting on Monday the Southern Nevada Health District will start offering immunizations. The shots cost $30 and will be available at all Health District locations throughout the valley. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 09/19/08- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Researchers at Columbia University Medical Center say they're close to developing a blood test to identify people at risk for Alzheimer's. They found levels of peptide called Amyloid-Beta in Blood Plasma. It appears to increase before the onset of Alzheimer's, then drops after the person develops the disease. The finding is similar to what happens with lipid levels in the blood stream before a heart attack. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 09/23/08- 430PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

NEWS SEGMENT: In Business News, a sign that Nevada's Economy still has a pulse. The New Retail Sales Numbers for April show a gain of three-tenths of a percent. It's not much, but it is the first increase since last October. Overall Retail Sales are still down more than 2% from last year. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 07/01/08- 5PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: More fallout from the pumped up fuel prices. Thanks to record gas prices, some gas stations across the U.S. have stopped selling premium fuel. Many have even stopped selling the mid-grade. Station owners say it's just too expensive now and hardly anyone buys it. In fact demand for high-octane is at its lowest point in about 25-years. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 07/10/08- 6AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The key to surviving the economy is finding a good game plan, stick to it and you might find something to smile about. You can see the growth almost everywhere in town, large cranes building mega projects. The feeling is because of these projects, Las Vegas could pull out of this downturn faster than any city in the nation... Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 07/16/08- 6PM Newscast. (1:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A souring economy makes life tougher for growing numbers of poor Nevadans. The State is preparing to cut back on the services designed to help them. Nevada Officials say cuts in food stamps and welfare programs are needed, because of shrinking federal reserves and state funds. New rules for the public assistance programs will go into effect this fall. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 07/18/08- 430PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Federal Minimum Wage goes up to $6.55 per hour starting today. (This impacts about two million Americans). The increase comes to 70 cents an hour. It could mean about an extra $100 a month. Unfortunately (this) in these hard economic times will most likely not make a difference. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast Date: 07/24/08- 5AM Newscast. (:75 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Good news for homeowners... Mortgage rates are on the decline. According to Freddie Mac, 30-year mortgage rates dipped to 6.52% this week. This comes after climbing to the highest level in nearly a year the week before. Economists say the falling price of oil has helped ease inflation concerns, contributing to lower mortgage rates. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 08/01/08- 5PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Citing the tough economy... A developer is pulling the plug on Summerlin Centre, but the economic implications could stretch beyond "that" shopping mall, because it's the same company involved in the shutdown of Echelon... And "it" has financial stakes in other high-end projects here in the valley... Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 08/06/08- 630PM Newscast. (1:40 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Today at the Energy Summit Conference at UNLV, Oil Tycoon T. Boone Pickens will be speaking. He's been known to make waves for pushing alternative energy. Pickens met with John McCain and Barack Obama over the weekend and says he'll work with whoever can get the job done. The Pickens Plan calls for investing in domestic renewable resources; such as wind and solar power and switching from oil to natural gas for transportation fuel. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 08/19/08- 6AM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: With the unemployment rate at a high level, layoffs happening, gas prices still high and housing market still down; you probably want to know, when are things going to turn around? Contact 13 asked applied analysis's Jeremy Aguero the same question. His company tracks economic trends on a local level. Aguero says "The last time Las Vegas saw a significant economic downturn was back in the early 1980s... weathering the economic storm is tough for consumers..." Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 08/26/08- 4PM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The economy is tightening, but Nevada isn't doing too badly. That's according to a new study of North American Job Markets. The Fraser Institute ranks the Silver State second in overall labor performance between 2003 and 2007. We're followed by Utah, Alaska, Idaho and Arizona. Alberta, Canada was tops in the survey. Michigan was dead last. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 08/29/08- 11AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Our local economy continues on a downward trend. New reports released this week shows the "Silver State" is struggling... Gaming profits at "Strip" casinos were down 13% last month. Some say it's evidence that an economic turnaround is still a ways off. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/11/08- 630PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: More depressing economic news for Las Vegas. The Milken Institute has released its newest list of "Best Performing Cities" and Las Vegas plunged 65 spots, from 9th last year to 75th this year. Las Vegas also earned a spot in Milken's list of "Biggest Losers". The rankings are based on Job and Wage growth. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 09/12/08- 430AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: One car dealership is moving completely off its lots. Bill Heard Chevrolet closed two dealerships in the Las Vegas valley and eleven more nationwide. They're blaming it on a slow economy and the credit crunch... It's not only an ordeal for customers. It's devastating for the now former employees who need jobs. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 09/25/08- 11PM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Latest on Economy Crisis... It was a long day on Wall Street and on the Beltway. Investors were stunned by the vote in the House that shot down the $700 billion bailout bill. Roughly 40% of Democrats and two-thirds of Republicans voted against it, including two of our three Representatives. Both sides blamed the other for the bill's defeat. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/29/08- 6PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

POLITICS

NEWS SEGMENT: Presidential hopeful John McCain is calling himself an "Underdog". The GOP Candidate trails Democrat Barack Obama in polls. Political Experts say McCain doesn't seem to have a message or much of a strategy. McCain is said to be beefing up his staff with more Presidential Campaign Veterans including a Top Aide in President Bush's re-election effort. Produced by Grant Bissell, Broadcast Date: 07/06/08- 6PM Weekend Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: This cartoon on the cover of the New Yorker shows Barack Obama in the oval office wearing Muslim garb bumping fists with his wife Michelle. She's sporting Military fatigues and an assault rifle. An American flag is shown burning in the fireplace... It is a shocking, yet literal depiction of the worst false rumors and fears about Barack Obama. When asked about the cover, Obama said "I have no response." Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 07/14/08- 430PM Newscast. (:60 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A new state wide poll by "Rasmussen Reports" shows that it's still a close race to the White House right here in Nevada. Among those surveyed, 42% support Democrat (Barack Obama) while 40 % plan to vote for Republican John McCain. 18% are still undecided. Produced by Ted Marshall, Broadcast Date: 07/22/08- 430AM Newscast. (:10 Seconds).

NEW SEGMENT: If you haven't registered to vote in the primary... You're too late. Today was the deadline. Two offices stayed open until 9PM tonight for last minute registrations. The primary ballots have also been printed... Elections Officials say a lot of people are signing up driven by high interest in the November Presidential Race. If you missed tonight's deadline, you still have time to register to vote in that election. Produced by Crystal Bruce, Broadcast Date: 07/22/08- 11PM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Dina Titus is now leading the pack in the race for the third congressional seat here in Nevada. The latest numbers have the Democrat ahead of the Republican Incumbent Jon Porter by 4 points. Porter is seeking a 4th term in Congress this year. Titus is currently the senate minority leader. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 08/01/08- 5PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: It was a record setting primary in Nevada this week, but not in a good way. As predicted, it was the lowest voter turnout on record for a primary. Only 14% of registered voters cast their ballots... resulting in Nevada Secretary of State, Ross Miller calling the turnout quote "Pathetic". Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 08/14/08- 430AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada Senator Harry Reid is scheduled to speak at the Democratic National Convention in Denver. The Senate Majority Leader will address energy and security during the third day of the convention on August 27th. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 08/15/08- 5PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Delaware Senator Joe Biden will be Barack Obama's running mate on the Democratic Presidential ticket. Obama will make the official announcement during a rally in Illinois today. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 08/23/08- 6AM Weekend Newscast. (:40 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A big announcement today from Senator John McCain. He announced his Vice Presidential pick this morning to a crowd in Ohio. McCain picked Sarah Palin. She's the first woman to be nominated for Vice President as a Republican, and only the second to run for Vice President on a major ticket. Produced by Crystal Bruce, Broadcast Date: 08/29/08- 6PM Newscast. (:65 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Senator John Ensign from Nevada took to the stage at the convention this afternoon. The Nevada Republican urged people to vote for John McCain and urged others in the GOP to support their senators. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/04/08- 630PM Newscast. (:35 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Nevada Supreme Court has struck down three ballot initiatives that were supposed to be on the November ballot. One would have asked voters to decide if a room tax should go toward public education. Another would have allowed Convention Authority earnings to be spent on education, transportation and public safety. The third would require a two-thirds vote to approve ballot measures that raise taxes. The State Supreme Court ruled the groups that gathered the petitions did not follow state law. Produced by Ted Marshall, Broadcast Date: 09/05/08- 430AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The volume is turning up in the race for Nevada's 3rd Congressional seat. After weeks of positive ads from both Jon Porter and Dina Titus; Jon Porter launched a new TV spot that goes on the offensive... With less than two months remaining before the election all campaigns are heating up. We're seeing more signs and more TV spots. The question is how voters will respond to more aggressive campaign ads. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/10/08- 630PM Newscast. (:87 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Nevada's 5 electoral votes could have a huge impact on who's elected President in November. A new poll by Suffolk University of 600 likely voters shows the Presidential race in Nevada is a toss up with Obama and McCain each at 46%. Historically, Nevada voters have gone for the Republican Candidate in 8 of the past 10 Presidential elections. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/24/08- 6PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: You're running out of time to register to vote in 2008 Presidential Election. The General Election will be held, Tuesday-November 4th. That makes October 4th the first real voter deadline. Until then, you can register without having to go down to the County Election Department. After that you'll have to do an in-office registration through October 14th. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 09/28/08- 8AM Weekend Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

EDUCATION

NEWS SEGMENT: It's only July, but the Clark County School District is getting ready for the new school year. The "New Teacher Welcome Center" opens today. It's packed with information and assistance for all newly hired faculty members... New teachers can also meet with veteran educators for Q&A. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 07/07/08- 11AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The head of Nevada's Higher Education system says deep budget cuts could devastate state colleges and universities for years to come. Chancellor Jim Rogers says campus budgets have already been slashed. And further cuts, mean fewer courses and overcrowded classrooms. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 07/09/08- 4PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The new school year is fast approaching. Kids have just about a month of summer left, and unfortunately many students will head to class without basic supplies like paper and pencils and that's where you come in. Help of Southern Nevada is collecting backpacks and other supplies for low income students. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 07/16/08- 430AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Bragging rights for a lot of local schools this morning. The Clark County School District is the only one its size to make the "No Child Left Behind" benchmarks. 218 Clark County Schools met the "No Child" standard, compared to 186 last year. Clark County is the only district among the nation's biggest ten to meet the challenge for the second year in a row. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast Date: 07/25/08- 430AM Newscast. (:40 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A moratorium on new charter schools in Nevada has been lifted by the State Board of Education. The Board last fall imposed a temporary freeze on the approval of new charter schools, citing inadequate staff. To monitor a growing number of such schools, the legislator just approved plans to hire a new State Department of Education Staff Person. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 08/11/08- 430PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The new school year is just about here. Some local teachers got some much needed appreciation on Wednesday. Hundreds of teachers showed up at the Mirage for Educator Appreciation Day. Teachers also received video-notebooks to teach their kids about nature and marine life. Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 08/14/08- 5AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Students at Nevada State College will soon enjoy a higher education in a new building. The Henderson-based College will open a new 42,000 square-foot building in a few weeks... Current enrollment is 2,000 students. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 08/18/08- 6PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Students needing help with homework now have someone to turn to in Clark County. The School District will open its homework hotline on September 8th. It's staffed with student volunteers and teachers providing help on those tough problems... Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 08/26/08- 6AM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Thousands of local kids went back to school this week, but many did it without leaving their homes. Online schools are growing in popularity. The North American council of on-line learning says online schooling grows about 30% a year. Students interact with teachers via chat and get the materials they need including computers and P.E. supplies. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 08/27/08- 5AM Newscast. (:40 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: It's Back to School at one of Clark County's newest schools. The New Year started three weeks ago for everyone except kids at Scott Elementary. It didn't open with the rest of the schools in Clark County because crews had to finish some off-site construction and since it's opening late it will operate on a modified calendar.

Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 09/15/08- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Some bad news tonight when it comes to our children's education. A national publication that focuses on higher education says Nevada has one of the highest High School Drop Out rates in the nation, and doesn't fair much better when it comes to College Graduation rates. The Chronicle for Higher Education in its latest almanac also ranks the state 47th in the proportion of adults with college degrees. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 09/16/08- 430PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Clark County School District has released its new enrollment numbers, and after early predictions that the student population was on the decline it looks like the District is still growing. According to the headcount, the District now has 2700 new students this school year. The total tally is more than 311,000 students compared to almost 309,000 last year. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 09/23/08- 6AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: After their scores just didn't "add up", Clark County School District Officials are revising math tests used for Middle School and High School students. This comes after the majority of students overwhelmingly failed the exams last year. The District is using uniform tests to see whether or not students will be ready for a new tougher state test in 2010. Produced by Rosemary O'Donnell, Broadcast Date: 09/30/08- 11AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

PUBLIC SAFETY

NEWS SEGMENT: Metro is upping its effort to make sure nobody tries to smuggle illegal fireworks into the valley. Yesterday, officers began locking down roads in and out of the area to look for drivers trying to dodge checkpoints. So far they've confiscated several tons of illegal fireworks. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 07/04/08- 6PM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Getting summoned for Jury Duty is frustrating enough. But now we've been told that a jury summons list got into the wrong hands. A spokesperson at Clark County District Court says an employee of the printing company hired by the county took names, birth dates and even social security numbers from a jury summons list. Notices have been sent to those folks who may have had their identity stolen. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 07/04/08- 5AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The majority of people who walk Freemont Street haven't realized there's a new cop on the beat. When Metro's first crime camera went up on Freemont about a year ago, crime went down almost instantly. Two more were just added last week with hopes of getting similar results. The cameras are monitored 24/7-365. But police say no matter how cutting edge the technology. It's meant to work hand-in-hand with patrol officers, not replace them. Produced by Adrienne Prather, Broadcast Date: 07/08/08- 430AM Newscast. (:75 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Metro's Fraud Unit says High-Tech Thieves are stealing millions of dollars from residents and tourists by taking information from their debit cards and using it to make fake cards. It's done with a small device called a "Skimmer". They can be used anywhere from gas stations to restaurants. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date: 07/10/08- 430PM Newscast. (:40 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Metro is bringing one of its strongest tools Dayside to put more bad guys behind bars! The department's K-9 Team now has a shift working during the day. Until just over a month ago, K-9 Officers only worked at night, but officers say they definitely see their fair share of action when the sun is up. Produced by DeAndre Esteen, Broadcast Date 07/24/08- 5PM Newscast. (:35 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Metro is addressing a new trend that could impact families all over the valley. Investigators have spotted an increase in Statutory Rape. Police say many can be linked to social networking sites, and kids who have too much unsupervised time. Warning signs include children sneaking out, not spending time with their typical group of friends and late night phone calls. Produced by Crystal Bruce, Broadcast Date: 08/01/08- 11PM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Signs of a terrorist attack can be subtle, so law enforcement wants you to have your eyes wide open. UNLV Institute for Security Studies, Metro, and the Governor's Commission on Homeland Security created a video to help us all spot terrorists before they strike... The DVD shows 7-signs anyone can look for... Produced by Lisa Link, Broadcast Date: 08/07/08- 6AM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Metro hopes its "Explorer" Program can help ease the tough time the department is having finding qualified recruits. "Explorers" range in age from fourteen to twenty. They go through similar training as police cadets to get a taste of law enforcement. Metro is trying to recruit 400 new officers each year. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date 08/12/08- 6AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Porshe Hughes lost both of her legs in a crash last month. And another woman was killed. Now Porshe wants to make sure the Regional Transportation Commission remodels bus shelters to make them safer... The RTC says it will take the public's input into consideration, but can't guarantee any more changes. Meantime the Commission has hired a consultant on Transportation Safety for advice. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 08/22/08- 5AM Newscast. (:40 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: It's a scary thought for anyone, police lights and tape, after someone breaks into your house, your home, your sanctuary; or as Assemblyman Harry Mortenson puts it, your castle. That's why Mortenson requested implementing the "Castle" Doctrine. It's a bill that says someone threatened in their home can use deadly force to protect themselves without duty to retreat. Basically if you feel threatened you can shoot first, ask questions later. Produced by Andrew Gearhart, Broadcast Date: 08/26/08- 11PM Newscast. (:75 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Metro and North Las Vegas Police will be on the lookout all over the valley for people who violate the rules at crosswalks. The beefed up patrols start this morning and will run most of the day. Officers will be looking for drivers who speed through crosswalks. They'll also be ticketing pedestrians who don't use marked crosswalks. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 09/05/08- 5AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Henderson Police Department and others around the state will be on a safety mission over the next two weeks. Starting today, they'll launch saturation patrols targeting teenage driver who aren't buckled up. The Officers will also be rewarding teenagers found wearing seatbelts with music downloads and other prizes. Produced by Ted Marschall, Broadcast Date: 09/10/08- GMA CUT-IN (730A). (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The RTC is holding a meeting today to discuss bus stop safety. There were two bus stop crashes last weekend. One man who was hit is still in critical condition. Police say a drunk driver slammed into the bus bench he was sitting on. This brings the total # of bus stop accidents to 13 in 6-years. Produced by Alison Paladie, Broadcast Date: 09/16/08- GMA CUT-IN (730A). (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Metros plans for a new headquarters complex (whose primary function would be to consolidate several departments under one roof) are on hold for 30 Days. The County Commission says the project favors the City of Las Vegas, which would only pick up 40% of the tab versus the County's 60%. The 370,000 square foot project at Alta and Martin Luther King Boulevard would take about 2 ½ years to finish. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 09/23/08- 630PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The OJ Simpson Robbery/Kidnapping trial will get back in full swing tomorrow. Former co-defendant, Michael McClinton, will face cross examination from the defense. Last week he testified that Simpson told the men involved in the alleged robbery at the Palace Station to bring guns and look menacing. McClinton also said Simpson ordered them to tell police that no guns were involved. Produced by Andrew Gearhart, Broadcast Date: 09/28/08- 11PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

"20/20" examines common summer myths and misconceptions, including on swimming, sunscreen, lightning and travel.

Friday, July 11, 2008

CRIMES & QUESTIONABLE BEHAVIOR

Cold-blooded murder, a mother hosing down her child, a fight on a schoolbus – all shocking scenes caught on tape and posted on the web. 20/20 reports on these events, all of which became internet sensations.

ABOVE THE LAW

John Stossel says "Give Me A Break" to police who do not always follow the law. Can police punish you for the rules ignore?

Friday, July 18, 2008

SEX IN AMERICA

Sex today is everywhere, from television and movies to the internet to images in ads and even store windows. John Stossel examines attitudes towards sex in this country, to the laws our government makes about where we can have it, whom we can have it with and when we must be protected from seeing it.

Friday, July 25, 2008

UNDERCOVER

Are cops to blame for the controversial death of a recent Florida State University graduate, Rachel, who was acting as a confidential informant? The State Attorney's office was never told of the arrangement and Rachel never received any training from police as a drug informant. Brian Ross' in-depth investigation includes exclusive, extensive interviews with Rachel's parents, friends, the police chief and the state attorney.

Friday, August 1, 2008

JONAS BROTHERS

The Jonas Brothers give "20/20" viewers an all-access pass with an intimate look inside their tour bus and their daily life on the road as they promote their new CD. ABC News correspondent Juju Chang reports about their music, rumored romances and the illness that nearly sidelined the band.

MISSING TODDLER

Where is toddler Caylee Anthony, the Florida girl whose disappearance this summer quickly became a major story across the nation? In an exclusive report, "20/20" will air never-before-seen home videos and photographs offering new insights into her young life with her mother, Casey, who remains at the center of the investigation. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

A SERIAL KILLER?

Three unusual cases in less than a year have some people wondering if South Florida is facing a serial killer. One man who went to a Boca Raton, Florida shopping center last August, and possibly two other times, was shopping only for a victim. On three separate occasions three women child in tow – were abducted.

Friday, September 19, 2008 (Season Premiere)

ALEC BALDWIN

A Diane Sawyer exclusive: In his first television interview in conjunction with his new book, Promises to Ourselves, Baldwin speaks candidly about the custody battle that devastated him. He takes on the business of divorce in America, his relationship with his daughter and ex-wife, actress Kim Basinger, and his own issues with anger management.

Friday, September 26, 2008

PORTRAIT OF A PRESIDENT

In the final weeks of a presidential race that has seen the candidates trade charges and countercharges, how well do voters really know Senators John McCain and Barack Obama? Diane Sawyer anchors two specials examining the personal crises, family struggles and defining events that have shaped the candidates.

PRIMETIME: CRIME

Wednesday, July 2, 2008

Primetime: Crime investigates crime by going deep inside real cases, uncovering new evidence, and getting exclusive witness interviews. Did a successful man murder his wife or was he falsely accused? Did Julie Jensen commit suicide, or was her husband, Mark Jensen, responsible for a horrific murder? Jay Schadler reports.

Wednesday, July 9, 2008

Nina Reiser, a doctor, vanished two years ago. She had been in the midst of an acrimonious divorce. In April this year, her husband, Hans, convicted for her murder, led police to a body he says is that of Nina. Did he lead police to his wife's body to reduce his sentence? Primetime: Crime investigates.

Wednesday, July 16, 2008

The FBI estimates that currently there are 100,000 minors in America being forced to trade sex for money. But while the notion of young American girls being forced into sexual slavery may be difficult to fathom, this week Cynthia McFadden takes a look inside the underground world of domestic trafficking of children.

Wednesday, July 23, 2008

Would an abducted young mother, Denise Lee, be alive today if not for human error at the 911 switchboard after she was abducted by a stranger? Denise even called 911 from her alleged abductor's cell phone, but police were unable to locate her. Jim Avila reports on an unthinkable crime and the mistakes made that may have cost a woman her life.

Wednesday, August 13, 2008

ABC NEWS SPECIALS: Third Quarter, 2008

HOPKINS (Six Part Series)

Thursday, July 3, 2008

In the second installment of "Hopkins," time is running out for a woman with an obscure lung disease, and a young surgeon is part of the effort to save her, even as he continues to deal with his own marital problems. The "Hopkins" series captures astounding scenes of medical crisis with young doctors forced to make life and death decisions on the fly. The result is a stunningly intimate portrait of the men and women who call this hospital home.

Thursday, July 10, 2008

In the third episode of "Hopkins" a woman from rural West Virginia finds an inner city Emergency Room to be an eye-opener, while a high spirited heart transplant patient plays hooky the day of his surgery and gambles with his life.

Thursday, July 17, 2008

In the fourth hour of Hopkins, a seemingly healthy toddler is rushed to Hopkins where his parents learn he may have a fatal heart ailment, while an unorthodox surgeon interrogates his residents about their romantic lives, as he himself approaches marriage for the third time.

Thursday, July 24, 2008

From a plastic surgeon who was told he wouldn't pass muster but now is performing miracles to three medical students whose patients sometimes feel like guinea pigs, the fifth hour of "Hopkins" documents what it takes to make it as a caregiver at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Thursday, July 31, 2008

In the sixth episode of Hopkins, a first year surgical resident makes a potentially career-ending mistake, while a pioneering surgeon tries the first bicoastal three-way kidney transplant in history.

Thursday, August 7, 2008

On the season finale of "Hopkins," doctors are perplexed by the heart of a young girl from China, and an ER doctor from earlier episodes asks a colleague to help her find a date.
